

PRIVATE DINING

HISTORY

Dating back to the 17th century, The Belvedere was once the Summer Ballroom to the Jacobean Mansion that was Holland House. It stands, not only in the middle of one of London's most beautiful parks, but in one of capital's most fashionable areas. Offering an oasis of tranquillity, it is surrounded by lawns, stunning flower gardens and a picturesque fountain yet is also conveniently located only minutes away from the buzz of High Street Kensington and Notting Hill

After a dramatic redesign by David Collins, The Belvedere has been re-launched to much acclaim and now offers superb cuisine in a unique location.

THE MENU

For parties of 15 guests and above we request that you choose one item from each course, creating your own menu for your special event. We are happy to provide alternatives for vegetarians or guests with special dietary requirements by prior agreement.

Parties between 11 and 14 guests will be offered a limited a la carte menu, offering a choice of 5 dishes at each course.

THE WINE LIST

The Belvedere Cellar offers a selection of over 200 bins carefully chosen to complement the menu to suit a variety of palates,
Our Chef Sommelier will be happy to offer you expert advice.

PARTY BOOKINGS

Belvedere consists of three adjacent dining areas, a flexible arrangement which makes the restaurant ideal for all kinds of private events.

The ground floor dining room to the left of the bar has high ceilings and terrace doors that lead out to the park. It is possible for a party of up to 60 guests to take over this level exclusively, a minimum spend will apply.

Above, the elegant upper dining room boasts views of the park with doors opening onto the balcony area outside which can cater for up to 60 guests.

The Gallery overlooking the ground floor can be booked for smaller more intimate parties. Accommodating a minimum of 14 guests and a maximum of 20 guests, a £250 hire fee would normally be applicable for exclusive use for dinner only.

Prices for weddings, exclusive events are available upon application
