Since its inception as a summer ballroom in the 19th century, the Belvedere's site has always been a place of magnificent gatherings. Today, our venue recaptures that spirit of Victorian revelry with added contemporary extravagance. Become a part of the restaurant's grand history, and let us help make your event truly remarkable through our range of offerings.

BELVEDERE

Loggia

Belvedere's most intimate space, the Loggia, is a luxurious private dining alcove overlooking the grand dining room. Fitted with rustic wicker chairs, arabesque chandeliers, terracotta walls and open Roman arches, the room's relaxed elegance is universal but is easily tailored for professional meetings, personal gatherings or small-scale special events.

Upstairs, hidden from view, the Torrino room is a space of candid splendour from floor to ceiling. An arcade of stylised mullioned windows overlooking the park steepers the room in natural light. Plush pale-green sofas, an exposed brick fireplace and a private bar, make this an ideal setting for dinner and cocktail parties and other celebrations.
